RE: Mancuso v. Calif. State Coastal Conservancy, et al.
LASC No. BS 040197

Dear Gentlemen:

On April 21, 1998, Jonathan Horne advised me that Mr. Wildman and Mr. Mancuso had come to an agreement on matters pertaining to how they would handle implementation of their responsibilities under the Settlement Agreement in the above entitled matter. Inasmuch as execution awaited only this agreement between Mr. Mancuso and Mr. Wildman and Jonathan advised me that Mr. Wildman was now prepared to execute the agreement, I am herewith forwarding an execution copy of the agreement to Jonathan for execution by Mr. Wildman.

After obtaining, Mr. Wildman signature, I ask that Jonathan please forward the executed document to Alan Abshez so that he may obtain Mr. Mancuso's signature. When that signature has been obtained, I ask that Alan please return the executed document to me so that I may obtain the signatures of the remaining parties. When I have collected each of those signatures I will prepare copies which I will stamp as originals and return to each of the parties respectively.

Please note that irrespective of the receipt of the executed agreement, the Conservancy and its agents, in accord with my letter of March 23, 1998, intend to traverse the easement and appropriate appurtenant easements on May 21, 1998.

Sincerely,

DANIEL E. LUNGREN
Attorney General
